LENT 2019

Fifth Sunday of Lent – 07April 2019 c Isaiah 43:16-21. Psalm 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6. Philippians 3:8-14. John 8:1-11. Writing on the ground. It is amazing how, first silence, then well-chosen words can defuse the riledup crowd. Jesus does it today. A woman is spared shameful treatment by the mercy and compassion and forgiveness of the One. Perhaps we can spend the rest of Lent by not picking on others and looking more within. For the face of mercy is consolation, silence, and compassion.

- What stones, intended for another, will I lay down?
- Who needs my compassion?
- I will do these mercy works, comforting the sorrowful and forgiving injuries, by _____?

Stewardship: A Way of Life

Some celebrities do a lot to help out various causes that are meaningful to them. Sometimes they give of their time, talent, or treasure, while other times they create giving opportunities for the rest of us to be generous. The celebrity then does much to highlight the cause, and the hope is that enough people will give to make a difference. I never judge another's motive when they choose to give to or support a cause. However, I hear many times a criticism levied against seemingly rich people who start a fundraiser and ask the rest of us to give: "Since they have so much money, they could simply give all the money needed themselves!" This exclamation often comes with disdain and a tone of superiority. This sentiment also comes frequently from those who have chosen to given little to nothing to the cause themselves. Stewardship begins with the person in the mirror. You and I are accountable to each other, but at the end of the day, the only one who knows the true level of our generosity is God. As this Lent draws to a close, it is time to take a good long look in the mirror. You probably aren't famous, so there probably won't be a crowd of people to question the level of your sacrifice, devotion, and generosity this Lent. Of course, God knows and so does that person looking back at you in the mirror. - Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
We are all sinners, and we all need mercy. If met with sincerity and true repentance of heart, an encounter with God's unconditional and all-forgiving love will lead to true conversion and a new life of grace. There is no point to condemnation or excessive punishment. We do not need to wag fingers or make people feel inferior. Jesus met the woman caught in adultery with compassion. He did not condemn her. People have not always been faithful to God. We have not always been faithful to God. Yet, God waits for us to return and trusts that His seeds of forgiveness and mercy will take root. We do not know if the woman left Jesus and sinned no more. It's not important.

CATHOLIC QUOTES - WORDS TO INSPIRE THE FAITHFUL
"The end for which we are created invites us to walk a road that is surely sown with a lot of thorns, but it is not sad; through even the sorrow, it is illuminated by joy." - Bl. Pier Giorgio Frassati

EASTER GIVING
Easter reminds us of the ultimate sacrifices that Jesus made for us on the cross. God the Father sent His only Son to proclaim the Good News. As stewards, we are called by God to be generous caretakers of the Lord's many blessings. Remember, God will never be outdone in generosity to each and every one of us. During this Lenten season, please prayerfully consider an Easter gift of $50.00 or more. As Scripture says, May your generosity be rewarded a "hundredfold." Yours in Christ—-Fr. Moszur
